

I am very disturbed by Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election. This is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation. Calling this a news show in order to avoid the opportunity for an opposing point of view to have air time is a clear negation of the purpose and intent of fair broadcast purposes.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. We need to see real people from our own communities and more substantive news about issues that matter, rather than programming mandated by large corporations with a greater interest in the bottom line than in the communities they serve.

We rely on you-the FCC- to safe guard the airwaves and to ensure they serve the community. I believe Sinclair does not deserve to have it's license renewed, and that at the very least you should look long and hard at blatant misuse of our public airwaves. Thank you.
